Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

*Always speak
how you feel and
never apologise
for being real.*

*Kindness is in our power
even when fondness
is not.*

Tread on a daisy and trouble a star: As part of the universe, called into one being by the Father, all of us are linked by unseen bonds and together form a kind of universal family, a sublime communion, which files us with a sacred, affectionate and humble respect. 'God has joined us so closely to the world around us that we can feel the desertification of soil almost as a physical ailment, and the extinction of a species as a painful disfigurement'... Everything is connected. Concern for the environment thus needs to be joined to a sincere love of our fellow human beings and unwavering commitment to resolving the problems of society... We have only one heart. ... (LS 89, 91 92).

Listening Process Quotations from Parishioners to link with the Sunday Scripture Readings - August 2019

In our Gospel Jesus states 'a person's life is not made secure by possessions' and in our 2nd Rd. we hear "There is only Christ: he is everything and he is in everything." Our Listening Process indicates that people are much busier and have far more options open at weekends than heretofore, e.g. "a busy life has made it difficult for everyone including myself. Too much going on in the world today" (p. 14 Diocesan Listening Report)?

Reflection Question: How can we work together to respond to the invitation of our scripture readings in light of the realities of life today?

Our Lady of Knock

Our Lady of Knock, Queen of Ireland,
 You gave hope to your people in a time of distress
 and comforted them in sorrow.
 You have inspired countless pilgrims to pray
 with confidence to your divine Son,
 remembering his promise:
 "Ask and you shall receive,
 seek and you shall find."
 Help me to remember that we are all pilgrims on the road to heaven.
 Fill me with love and concern for my brothers
 and sisters in Christ,
 especially those who live with me.
 Comfort me when I am sick or lonely or depressed.
 Teach me how to take part ever more reverently
 in the holy Mass.
 Pray for me now, and at the hour of my death.
 Amen.
