Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time.

Mass is livestreamed on www.Churchcamlive/TemplemoreParish

Eucharistic Adoration will resume in September

Jesus did not found the Church as a citadel of purity nor as a constant parade of heroes and saints - although thank God we do not lack these. It is something much more dynamic; a school of conversion, a place of spiritual combat and discernment, where grace abounds along with sin and temptation. Like its members, the Church can be an instrument of God's mercy because it needs that mercy. Just as none of us should reject other people because of their sins and failures but help them be what they are meant to be, Christ's followers should love and listen to the Church, build her up, take responsibility for her, including her sins and failures. At those moments when the Church shows herself to be weak and sinful, let us help her get up again; let us not condemn or disdain her, but care for her like our own mother.

- Pope Francis

*"Sometimes I love the peacefulness of an ordinary day.
It is like standing in a newly planted garden after a warm rain.
You can feel the silent and invisible life."
